Satellite Symposium Application

The 26th Annual Clinical Meeting of the American Academy of Pain Management will be held at the Gaylord National in Washington DC from September 17-20, 2010. The satellite symposium proposals are now being accepted for breakfast, lunch and dinner, time slots.

The allotted time is between 60 and 90 minutes and must include the registration and evaluation period in addition to the presentation. The slots will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. The Academy does not run more than one symposium at a particular time.

Symposia may be accredited or may not be accredited. Commercial organizations are invited to present information about their product or services as well.

The symposium sponsor is responsible for planning, promotion, and management of the event and for payment of all related costs, including but not limited to audiovisual equipment and services, and electrical services.

Symposium Fees:
- Breakfast: $55,000 seating for 350 attendees
- Lunch: $75,000 seating for 450 attendees
- Dinner: $90,000 seating for 200 attendees

Please note: The Academy will provide food and beverage during this time period. Vendors must provide seating to accommodate and may choose to increase food and beverage offerings.

Items Covered by Symposium Fee:
- Meeting room Gaylord National Hotel
- Full page advertisement in the program book (due 7/10/2015)
- Listing on the official agenda as a “satellite symposium” (due 7/6/2015)
- Inclusion on the meeting’s web-based pre-registration system

Costs for Additional Items:
- Room drop (1,000 rooms): $5,000
- Bag insert: $1,000 (due 8/14/2014)
- Pre-registered attendee mailing list: $450
- Audiovisual arrangements can be made with the Academy’s vendor, or with a vendor of your choosing.
American Academy of Pain Management Overview

The American Academy of Pain Management (the Academy) is a non-profit organization that educates clinicians about pain and its management through an integrative interdisciplinary approach. The organization has approximately 4,300 members who represent a variety of disciplines, including medicine, nursing, psychology, and physical therapy. The table below contains a breakdown of the membership by discipline:

The Annual Clinical Meeting is the Academy’s primary educational offering. The Academy is accredited by the ACCME and the APA, and seeks accreditation for several other disciplines. In addition to the more than 50 clinical presentations, the meeting includes poster sessions, networking opportunities, and exhibits. The meeting draws approximately 1000 attendees.
